To Whom it May Concern,

I wish to express my utmost gratitude to JP & Associates for helping me through some very difficult times over the past six months.

Particularly with their assistance in acquisition of a new commercial property, which we desperately needed for our expanding business; assisting me with various documents, e.g. Power of Attorney and sale of property to help finance my mother's care in a nursing home.

John has shown dedication, consideration and compassion towards myself and my family during these very stressful times, but mostly I have been impressed with his honesty, integrity and organisational ability. He has been on top of the game from beginning to end. Therefore, I have no hesitation in recommending JP & Association to anyone who is looking for a professional and committed solicitor.

I would be pleased to validate this reference, please don't hesitate to contact me if you would like to discuss further.

Kind Regards,

Lesley B. [redacted]
